4. Relevant Financial Activities Outside the Proposed Research

Check only the statement that applies:

- I (and/or my spouse or domestic partner) have no financial relationships to disclose.
 I (and/or my spouse or domestic partner) have a financial relationship or affiliation with the following commercial interest(s). Provide details in the table below.

The table asks about your financial relationships with entities in the biomedical arena that could be perceived to influence, or that give the appearance of influencing, your proposed research.

Place a check in the appropriate boxes to indicate any financial or other relationships (regardless of amount of compensation). Report all sources of revenue paid (or promised to be paid) directly to you or your institution on your behalf during the 36 months prior to this disclosure. This should include all monies from sources with relevance to the proposed work. If there is a question, it is better to disclose a relationship than not to do so.

Use one line for each entity. If additional lines are needed, attach a separate sheet. Definitions of the terms used can be found in Section 7.

5. Relationships Not Covered Above

Are there other relationships or activities that others could perceive to have influenced, or that give the appearance of potentially influencing, the research for which you are submitting this form?

Yes, the following relationships/conditions/circumstances are present (explain): CH has received expenses and fees for his media work. He has received expenses from the WHO, and holds grant funding from the NIHR, the NIHR School of Primary Care Research, and The NIHR BRC Oxford. On occasion, he receives expenses for teaching EBM and is also paid for his GP work in NHS out of hours (contract with Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust). He is Director of CEBM, which jointly runs the EvidenceLive Conference with the BMJ and the Overdiagnosis Conference with international partners, based on a non-profit making model. He is Editor in Chief of BMJ Evidence-Based Medicine and is an NIHR Senior Investigator.

No other relationships/conditions/circumstances exist that present a potential conflict of interest

On occasion, the YODA Project may ask for additional information about reported relationships.
